Clue is a fun game, and requires a board, cards, tokens and playing pieces. The cards involved are ones you must punch out yourself, and are extraordinarily small. The box that contains this game is quite small, but the cards are so small, they can't properly fit in the card slot (I believe that's what the area is on the interior) and had they ...

Often overlooked, Myrtle Edwards Park is one of the most scenic and easily accessed places to run in the city. Starting at the north end of the downtown waterfront (which you can also run along easily), this 1.5-mile paved trail (one way) takes you out along the shores of Elliott Bay with views of the Olympic Range and Peninsula. If you want to extend the run, take the trail past the cruise ...
