There are no reports of this on The Layoff , as of yet, like there were when Cloudera and Hortonworks cut staff. But the LinkedIn profiles of some MapR employees confirm that they parted ways with the company in May. Let's be frank, anytime anyone loses a job it's disruptive, but for this group of workers, at this time, it's probably only for a short while.

Though it's not nearly as Christmas focused as the title makes it seem, "Jingle Jangle" is pure, unadulterated magic. It's got all the wonder and joy kids (and adults with an active inner child) could hope for, yet deals with issues of regret in as meaningful and grown-up a way as "The Christmas Carol."

Here's the Scoop: Interesting Links (Nov 20) November 19, 2020 November 20, 2020 by Erin Interesting Links (Nov 20): Here we are, less than a week from Thanksgiving and I still find it hard to believe that 2020 didn't just stall out at some point last summer.

Here's the Scoop: Interesting Links (Nov 20) - List in ...

In the spirit of the holidays, U.S. presidents dating back to Kennedy take a break from legislation and international diplomacy to pardon a turkey on Thanksgiving. What started as a retroactive nod to President Abraham Lincoln sparing his son's turkey from becoming Thanksgiving dinner has become an official ceremony. This year, the turkeys are named Tater and Tot, and the public can
